Reichards 2010 Challenge

What do you think of when you think of Canada? Is there something about the country or its people that makes you proud to be Canadian?

We would like you to sew a quilt block using the challenge fabric (available in store) to show what it is you love about Canada.

Blocks must be returned by Monday May 10th and will be displayed in store during Quilt Festival.

Visitors to the store will be asked to vote on their favourite block and the top three will win a prize. All blocks become the property of Reichards and will be made into a quilt to be given to Quilts Of Valor.

Please refrain...

From wearing perfumes to class. Many of our customers and staff have allergies.

Thank you for your co-operation.
